The Opening Day.

A Cordial Welcome.

Turner's Hall and the Rink.

A GRAND PROCESSION.

THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT.

Addresses by Mayor Blackmore and Gov. Geary.

APPEARANCE OF THE CITIES.

The German Sængerfest, or, as we would render it in English, the Singing Festival, was happily inaugurated yesterday. The Committee of Arrangements, with Mr. A. Krebs as chairman, has made the most ample arrangements for the reception and hospitable entertainment of those Societies and delegations which were expected from abroad; and the entire German population contributed, in every possible way, to honor the guests, and make the festival meet the highest anticipations of the public.

THE HEADQUARTERS.

Turners' Hall, a building admirably suited to the purpose, was made the headquarters for the reception of the guests and their entertainment. It was a busy place yesterday, its ample rooms and spacious hall being crowded with committeemen and committeewomen, all intent on extending a cordial welcome and generous hospitality to those who came from abroad to participate in the festivities.

The building was elegantly fitted up and handsomely decorated for the occasion. Over the entrance, on Sixth street, was an evergreen portico, with its columns gaily decorated with flags, festoons, wreaths, etc., and surmounted with a [illegible]

In the hall we found shields designating all the societies represented at the Sængerfest, which are as follows:

THE RINK.

This spacious building, so admirably adapted for the purpose, was elegantly decorated for the occasion under the direction of Captain Elliott. [illegible]

"Music, oh how faint, how weak
Language fades before thy spell;
Why should feeling ever speak
When thou can breathe the soul so well."

On the left side the following in German is given:

"Herz und Red frisch frei gesund
Wahrt's Gott du Sängerbund."

THE CONCERT.

At half-past eight o'clock the procession reached the Rink, when Gov. Geary, Mayor Blackmore, and others who were to participate, were conducted to the speakers' stand, in the center of the south side of the building. The Rink, which can comfortably seat two thousand five hundred persons, was soon occupied by a large and very fashionable audience, [illegible]

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

Mr. Krebs then introduced the Hon. James Blackmore, Mayor of Pittsburgh, who spoke as follows:

GENTLEMEN—It gives me great pleasure to meet you, my German fellow-citizens from abroad, to extend to you my heart felt greeting, and on behalf of the citizens of Pittsburgh to tender you the hospitalities of our city. [illegible] genial influence felt in imparting a more full and perfect symmetry.

But, gentlemen, I feel that I cannot do justice to this subject and I refrain from dwelling further on it. May you, during your sojourn here, realize the utmost enjoyment, and may you bear with you on your return to your homes many pleasant recollections of your visit to Pittsburgh.

The second item of the programme, "Grand Chorus," by the Resident Societies, was then rendered in an effective manner, and elicited loud applause.

ADDRESS OF GOV. GEARY.

His Excellency, Governor Geary, was then introduced, and was received amid deafening applause. He said:

My Friends and Fellow-Citizens—I am compelled to beg pardon this evening, for appearing before you without the usual prepared address. But after the magnificent pageant through which I have just passed, and with the gorgeous scene now before me, I feel that I can express at least the honest gushings of my heart on this occasion. It is pleasant to reflect that in the foundation of this government of ours, this platform of liberty and justice was broad enough to attract to our shores the hardy sons of Faderland, and to invite those from other nations far beyond the sea. [Applause.] How could the universal liberty fail to attract the down-trodden nations of the Old World? We have but to look to the eastern counties of this State, such as Lancaster, Berks, Lehigh and others, where the thrifty German population has spread, to see and know that wherever their hands have touched, there has been everything to cause the heart of man to rejoice.

But I must not occupy too much of your time. I understand I am in the presence of men representing five States of this Union, and I am present as the Chief Magistrate of Pennsylvania to tender you all a heartfelt welcome. I feel as much affection for those from the different nations of the world as for those who have been born under the starry folds of our beloved banner. [Applause.] I would be wanting to myself if I did not declare that there is no more orderly portion of people found in the borders of our State, or anywhere else where it has been my fortune to administer the laws, than is found among the German population. There were none more firm in the field of battle, and my heart is full of gratitude to those Germans who sustained the banner around me. In the Mexican war they won for themselves wreaths of immortal honor. During the rebellion no men were more willing to leave their homes and support the Stars and Stripes. I had two thousand of them under my command, and am as much indebted to them as to any other portion of that noble body of men. [Applause.]

I heartily approve of these meetings, and feel that it is good to be here. I rejoice with you, with exceeding great joy, and pray God you may have a pleasant and profitable time together. I recently witnessed an assemblage of some thirty thousand of my German fellow-citizens in the eastern part of this State, and am proud to say that I did not see a single drunken man among them. [Applause.] The laws are safe from infraction in the hands of such order loving citizens as these. I honor you, I repeat it, from my very heart. I honor the population which has done so much for my country, and extend to them a heartfelt welcome. I hope that nothing may occur to mar the pleasure which you have in store for yourselves on this interesting and important occasion.

The Governor retired amidst prolonged applause, and three rousing cheers were given in his honor. The musical part of the programme was then proceeded with.

The Allegheny Quartette Club, under the direction of Professor W. H. Slack, and composed of Professors W. H. Slack, Walter Slack, Corner and Darling, then sung "Sleep, Gentle Lady," in a manner which called forth the loudest plaudits, the audience demanding a repetition.

Toerge's immense orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Toerge, then played the celebrated piece from Faust entitled "Steiger Marsch" in such a beautiful manner as to draw forth continued plaudits from the audience, and a repetition of it was compelled.

ORATION BY REV. C. SCHILLING.

Rev. C. Schilling, of Allegheny City, then delivered an oration of congratulation in German. The address was a very eloquent and able one, and occupied about half an hour in delivery. The reverend gentleman congratulated his German fellow-citizens on this great gathering, which would be productive of much harmony and good feeling among them. He referred back to the time when these social feasts were inaugurated many years ago, and characterized them as occupying one of the brightest pages in the history of the "Fatherland." He was glad to see present so many of his countrymen—representatives from five different States of the Union—and extended to them a hearty welcome to the Iron City. The gentleman was loudly applauded at the conclusion of his address.

The Allegheny Quartette Club then sang "Dreams of Home" in an excellent manner, concluding with a verse from "Home, Sweet Home."

The evening's entertainment concluded with the singing in a beautiful manner of America's national air—"The Star Spangled Banner,"—by the several resident singing societies, accompanied by the Quartette Club and Toerge's Orchestra.

THE ENTERTAINMENT THIS EVENING.

The entertainment at the Rink this evening will probably be the most attractive during the Fest, and we expect to see the spacious building jammed. The entertainment will consist of a grand concert by the combined singing societies of four hundred voices, and an orchestra of forty pieces, under the direction of Prof. A. Knoell. The concert will consist of a number of choice selections from the best composers of the day, and we expect to see at the Rink [illegible] evening one of the largest audiences that [illegible] assembled here. The Steinway piano [illegible] used on the occasion is from the [illegible] to be Kleber & Bro., Wood street. To accommodate persons living on the line of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne, and Chicago Railroad, the last train on that road will not leave until 11:30 P. M.

The United Order of the Seven Wise Men—Annual Meeting of the Grand Conclave.

The annual session of the Grand Conclave of the United Order of the Seven Wise Men commenced at Neptune Hall, on Seventh street, yesterday morning. The body is composed of delegates from different parts of the United States, the four lodges from this vicinity—Hayden Conclave No. 45, Mozart Conclave No. 26, Birmingham Conclave No. 54, and Humboldt Conclave No. 25—being represented. The order is very little known in this vicinity, but is said to be extending. The conclave will remain in session several days.

A procession of the members of the order in this vicinity was gotten up yesterday morning in honor of the Grand Conclave. The procession, although not a very large one, made a very fine appearance, and passed through the principal streets of the city to Iron City Park, where a picnic was held, which was largely attended. The procession was headed by a squad of the Mayor's police, after whom followed the Great Western Brass Band. The members and officers of the grand conclave, in carriages, came next, and were followed by the resident members of the order on foot, preceded by a brass band. Prominent among the features of the display were two large cars, decorated with flowers and evergreens, filled with little girls dressed in white and carrying small flags in their hands. Another striking feature was seven boys, dressed in white pants made in Zouave style, white blouses or gowns, tied around the waist with a girdle of colored ribbons, and white turbans, also tied with ribbons of different colors. There were probably several hundred members in line.

Singular Explosion of a Soda Fountain.

Yesterday morning, about nine o'clock, a singular explosion of an acid chamber of the soda fountain, in the drug-store of Mr. Joseph Abel, corner of Fifth and Grant streets, took place. Mr. Kearns, one of the gentleman connected with the drug-store, had a narrow escape. It appears that at the time of the explosion he was working at the portion of the apparatus in the cellar. Fortunately, he was in a stooping position, and the copper cap of the chamber was blown over his head and did not strike him, although the sulphuric acid contained in the chamber was thrown over his back and burned him severely. His injuries, although painful, are not considered dangerous. As the pressure of gas, shown by the gauge, was much less than the apparatus was designed to bear, the explosion is attributed to the weak soldering of the cap on the chamber. Aside from the injuries of Mr. K., and the slight damaging of the fountain, no damage was done.

School Openings—The University.

This is a lively week among the minors. School rooms have been scoured out and aired, and the choice of seats is eagerly bidden for. We are glad to know that away out in the suburbs, in the new consolidated city, large new school buildings crowd up as fast as they are built. All success, say we, to the young competitors for the awards of science and letters gathered in our common schools, and a hearty godspeed to the faithful laborers in this noble department of benevolence. We congratulate the University, opening this morning, on the unusually large number of college students that have already knocked at its doors. Can no one take the hint we have more than dropped, with reference to funds to aid in the education of ministers' sons and of young men in general who would value above all price the privileges that are often wasted upon the children of fortune? The right man could speak to the point just at this season.

STREET FIGHT.—A couple of roughs became involved in a quarrel on Fifth street, in front of the COMMERCIAL office about ten o'clock last evening, and finally one knocked the other down. The appearance of the police caused the party of the first part to skedaddle across the street, and take refuge behind a peanut stand, his appearance producing no small amount of consternation among the Italians. The party of the second part also made good his escape.

A FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE.—Officer Jerry Gumbert, of Mayor Blackmore's police, yesterday arrested a young man at the Union Depot, on a telegram received from Sharon, Pa. The young man was charged with cutting a board bill and larceny at Sharon, but fled and came here for the purpose of avoiding arrest. He was taken back on the return train.

THE MONONGAHELA CAMP MEETING.—The Methodist Camp Meeting near Monongahela City was very largely attended on Sunday, and the services were of a very interesting character. Besides the regular packets, there were five towboat loads of people taken to the grounds during the day.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—It was rumored last evening that a man named Little shot a negro during a quarrel which occurred in the upper part of the old Sixth Ward, inflicting a severe wound in the hip. At two o'clock this morning no arrests had been made.

SERENADE TO GOVERNOR GEARY.—Governor Geary was serenaded about eleven o'clock last evening at the Monongahela House by the Second Ward Glee Club. The Governor replied briefly, expressing his thanks for the honor conferred.

OFFICE ROBBED.—The law office of D. W. & A. S. Bell was entered by thieves on Saturday night and robbed of several pairs of boots and several other articles of trifling value. There is no clue that would lead to the detection of the thieves.

SCHOOLS RE-OPENED.—The Allegheny City schools re-opened yesterday for the fall and winter season. The attendance during the winter school term promises to be very large.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The public schools all opened yesterday morning, the summer vacation having ended.

SECRETARIES.

Reporters of the Republican press.

SPEECH OF HON. THOMAS WILLIAMS.

The chairman said he did not appear before them for the purpose of making a speech. He came for the purpose of testifying that he realized the importance of the great battle, as he looked upon it, as the last great battle of the rebellion. He also would say that in the time they had selected him to represent them in Congress, he labored to discharge faithfully the duties of his position. The manner in which a nominee for Congress had been selected was next alluded to. The Allegheny delegation had been instructed to vote for him, but he was satisfied with the course affairs had taken. He had known their candidate, Mr. Phelps, for many years, he hardly knew how many, and was sure he would be faithful. He has fought side by side and shoulder to shoulder with myself. From what I know of him as a professional and public man he will do you no dishonor. I trust you will not feel dissatisfied as I am not with the candidate, and will feel prepared to show to him and the country from which he comes, that when it comes to a question of this sort, you do not care to consider whether a candidate resides in Allegheny, Armstrong or Butler county, but that you will give him, as you have given so often to me, an old-fashioned Allegheny majority. [Cheers.] If I had been called upon to select between the other candidates, there is not one I would be more ready to select as the one to take the mantle as it falls from my shoulders. The county from which he comes has invariably stood by you and me in every election in which I have been a candidate. It was right, therefore, that the nomination, if it should go elsewhere, should go to him. I repeat, I am entirely satisfied with the decision, and trust you hold the same opinion. I find on con[illegible] here that the gentleman who is to succeed [illegible] as a candidate, and as a member of [illegible] me representing this great district, is [illegible] Congress, I am not able, in the present [illegible] not present health, to fill up the vacant [illegible] condition of my looking around, I find [illegible] myself, and, on who will address you [illegible] my friend Mr. Lucas.

SPEECH OF MR. LUCAS.

Mr. Williams [illegible] as concluded his speech amid great cheers [illegible] ing, and B. F. Lucas, Esq., was enthusiastically called for. This gentleman made a l[illegible] and earnest speech, discussing briefly the financial question, and the character of the candidates of the respective parties. It was the duty of loyal men everywhere to do their duty in this great national contest. Mr. Lucas was frequently interrupted by applause and said, in conclusion, that he would not detain them longer, as they would doubtless all like to hear Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., who was present.

SPEECH OF MR. MARSHALL.

Mr. Marshall, on taking the stand, was greeted with prolonged cheers, and delivered one of his forcible and eloquent speeches. He called attention to the course of the Democratic party in the Chicago Convention, where it had declared that the war was a failure, and its more recent acts of hostility to the country. The rebels in committing the crime of treason had committed a crime greater than that of murder and were as fully deserving of the hangman, but the Government in its magnanimity had pardoned them, and now they turned round and said they wanted their rights under the constitution. The loyal heart of the nation told them they had committed a horrid sin, spread mourning throughout our borders, and earned, justly earned, death. The Hon. Alex. Foster said that those men had committed treason but we could only put them to death—we could not take their votes from them. If this gentleman depended upon the votes of men who ought to be put to death his election would be very uncertain.

Mr. Marshall also discussed briefly the financial question. Pendleton, the favorite of the Democracy, had denounced the issuing of greenbacks as unconstitutional, and they now said redeem your legal contracts in unconstitutional money. In case money fell five per cent. to-day it was not the rich banker or broker that would be the loser. It fell upon the workingmen. The financial men could take advantage of all these changes, but not so with the laboring classes. All sudden changes in values in the money market were advantages to the speculators, and a disadvantage to the workingmen of the country. The speaker then said he would retire in favor of Hon. Darwin Phelps, who would address them and bespoke for their distinguished candidate a warm reception.

SPEECH OF MR. PHELPS.

Mr. Phelps was greeted with long continued cheers, and when the applause had in a measure subsided, said that owing to the fact that a driving storm had set in, and also that they had heard the issues of the campaign so ably discussed, that it was necessary for him to make an extended speech. [illegible]

After speaking briefly of the candidates of respective parties, Mr. Phelps closed amid great cheering.

THE RAIN.

Notwithstanding the fact that during the entire time that Mr. Phelps was speaking the rain fell in torrents, there was scarcely any diminution in the size of the audience, many of those present having brought their umbrellas with them, with the evident intention of hearing the eloquent speakers, rain or no rain.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

At the close of the speech of Mr. Phelps, Gen. Blakely, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, submitted the following:

Resolved, That having the most full and entire confidence in the ability, integrity and patriotism of Hon. Darwin Phelps, of Armstrong county, we do most cordially endorse his nomination as the Republican candidate for Congress in this district; and that we will ratify that nomination on the second Tuesday in October next, in such a manner as to carry terror into the ranks of the enemies of freedom.

Resolved, That we fully and heartily endorse the public services of Hon. Thomas Williams, our present representative in Congress, in whom we have a representative second to none in the nation, with the courage, honesty and ability to maintain the right, and that when the time shall come for him to surrender the trust committed to his hands he will be entitled to and receive from a grateful constituency the welcome plaudit, "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

The meeting adjourned with cheers for Grant and Colfax, and Hon. Darwin Phelps, candidate for Congress.

Seventeenth Ward Meeting.

Notwithstanding the rain storm which prevailed, a large number of the citizens of the ward attended the meeting of the Grant and Colfax Club, which was held at the Academy. Samuel W. Reynolds presided. After the transaction of the business of the club, John S. Lamble was introduced, and discussed the fourteenth amendment and the reconstruction policy of Congress, which he held were our only guarantees for future peace.

W. S. McCune, was next introduced, and for upwards of half an hour discussed the Democratic party record as made for itself. He urged thorough organization, and showed how the apathy of the people and carelessness lost the campaign last fall.

W. A. Leggate made the concluding speech of the evening. He showed the importance of work, the danger of delay, and concluded with a prophecy of victory in November next.

Republican Mass Meeting at Beaver.

A mass meeting of the Republicans of Beaver county was held at the Court House, in Beaver, on Saturday evening. The meeting was very large and enthusiastic, large delegations being present from adjoining towns. Prof. J. Wm. Pope, of this city, the popular campaign singer, was present and sang a number of his campaign songs in his usual excellent manner, drawing forth the plaudits of the large audience present.

The meeting was organized by calling 'Squire Hays to the chair, and appointing a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

After briefly thanking the meeting for the meeting for the honor conferred in electing him to preside, the chairman introduced as the orator of the evening, W. C. Moreland, Esq., of this city, who made a very eloquent and able argument, holding the audience in close attention for over an hour and a half. He reviewed the general issues involved in the campaign, compared the platforms and candidates of the two different parties, and entered into an able discussion of the financial question. The speaker was frequently applauded during his address.

At the conclusion of Mr. Moreland's speech, Prof. Pope sang a song and the meeting adjourned.

Mass Meeting in South Fayette Township.

A large and enthusiastic Republican mass meeting was held at the Woodville House, on the Washington turnpike, on Saturday evening. President—James G. Murray, of Upper St. Clair township. Vice Presidents—Isaac Craig, of South Fayette, and Alexander Gilfillan of Upper St. Clair. Secretaries—Neville B. Craig and William Moss of South Fayette township.

The Chairman thanked the meeting for choosing him to preside, and introduced C. W. Robb, Esq., who entertained the meeting with a very able and eloquent address.

The next speaker was Hon. John M. Kirkpatrick, who delivered one of his most forcible and argumentative speeches, and was listened to with the closest attention. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the speakers, after which the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Grant, Colfax, and the State and county ticket.

Meetings This Evening.

Tuesday Evening, September 1st.—In the Second ward, Allegheny, near the School House. To be addressed by Hon. James L. Graham and W. T. Haines, Esq.

Tuesday Evening—At the corner of Penn and Baldwin streets, in the Wigwam. To be addressed by H. C. Mackrell, A. M. Brown, Thos. M. Marshall and W. S. McCune.

Elections in Allegheny To-Day.

In accordance with a proclamation issued by Mayor Drum, elections will be held in Allegheny to-day to fill the vacancies in the Common Council occasioned by the resignations of W. H. Dunham, of the Second ward, and Henry Geyer, of the Seventh ward. Alfred Slack is the regular Republican nominee in the Second ward to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Dunham, and he will no doubt receive the undivided support of the party.

South Pittsburg Councils.

The Council of the Borough of South Pittsburg held their regular monthly meeting, in Justice Barker's office, on Monday evening, August 31, 1868.

Members Present—Messrs. Lorentz, Kim, Koester, Brown, and Mr. Haines, who occupied the chair in the absence of Burgess Roberts.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, after which the Burgess announced the Council ready for business.

The Clerk then read the following bills:

Addison Foster, Street Commissioner, for work done during the month of August	$58 00
George Kim & Co., for slabs, &c.	5 00
M. & F. Walsh, for spikes, &c.	5 34
John Stemler, High Constable	40 00
William Wustenhagen, Assistant High Constable	30 00
Charles Kolbacher, for attendance to fire plugs to date	15 00
To the same, for services rendered	12 00
Jones & Laughlin, for repairs to fire plug	6 40
Total	$172 74

On motion warrants were ordered to be drawn for the payment of the same.

The Clerk read the estimate of repaving of Oliver street, beginning at Carson street, in which it appeared that nine hundred and forty-two and four-ninth square yards had been paid. The price to be paid was sixty-five cents per yard, and the whole amount was $612 58. One-half to be paid by the borough of Birmingham and the other half by South Pittsburgh. Oliver street being the dividing line between the boroughs. It appearing that the work had not been properly done, and an over-estimate being made, the bill was referred to the Street Committee.

A warrant for $8 was ordered to be drawn in favor of Barney —— for removing the dead carcasses of horses, from their resting places, on bars in the Monongahela river.

Mr. Koester stated that the citizens residing on the Brownsville road desired to have the board walk extended to the borough line, which was agreed to.

Mr. Lorenz moved that the Street Committee be instructed to ascertain what a lot could be procured for, for the purpose of opening a street from Manor to Carson street, and also to ascertain what amount the property holders would be willing to give towards defraying the expenses of the same, which was adopted.

It was here stated that for about seventy-five or one hundred dollars the Fire Alarm Telegraph could be extended to the borough. It was proposed to use the wires of some of the manufacturing establishments, and the telegraph office of the Pan Handle Railroad Bridge as the central office. Alarms would be sent to the office where the company's operator was on duty all the time, and by him the message would be transmitted to the two engines in Pittsburgh which generally repair to fires on the south side. The system could be had for about one hundred dollars. The matter was laid over.

The borough and improvement tax for the ensuing year was fixed at twenty-four mills.

Mr. William Faloon was re-elected tax collector of the borough.

On motion adjourned.

Pittsburgh Female College—Rev. I. C. Pershing, D. D., President—Reopening of the Fall Term.

Our readers [illegible] in this city and surrounding country [illegible] will permit us to remind them of the reopening of this institution of learning to-morrow.

There is no female college in the country which possesses greater facilities for the education of females. The buildings are elegant and commodious, and are located in a most desirable portion of the town, immediately contiguous to Christ Methodist Episcopal Church, on Hancock street, near Penn.

This street is retired from the business portions of the city, and studded with beautiful shade trees, making the location both pleasant and healthful.

The Faculty of the institution is composed of twenty-two experienced professors, and all the lecture and music rooms are supplied with apparatus and instruments of the very best make, thus furnishing facilities for imparting instruction in all the branches of education, both solid and ornamental, equal to any institution in the country. Some of the very best female scholars, the most accomplished and polished ladies of our city and country have received their education at this institution.

President Pershing is a gentleman of very superior attainments, of untiring energy, and has made this College in the past a great success. During the past terms students have been present from all parts of the Union; from Pittsburgh to Omaha.

All the arrangements for boarding scholars, and for the care of their morals, are of the most perfect character, and students may be intrusted to the care of this institution with as much guarantee of safety as at their own homes.

During vacation the college buildings have been thoroughly renovated. Workmen have been engaged for two months repairing, graining, varnishing, and cleaning the rooms and halls. New carpets have been laid down, additional furniture and instruments supplied, and everything done that could enhance the facilities of a first class college of instruction.

The college will re-open on Wednesday, the second of September, and persons wishing information should address Rev. I. C. Pershing, D. D., President Pittsburgh Female College, Pittsburgh, for a circular. We commend this institution to the favorable consideration of our readers, believing that there is no better in the country.

A Sad Case.

About one month ago a frail creature, whose name we have forgotten, made information before the Mayor charging a young man with seduction under promise of marriage. The accused was arrested, but after a hearing was discharged. Subsequently the girl herself was arrested and committed to jail as a vagrant. Her term of thirty days expired yesterday and she was released. Shortly after getting out of jail she fell in with a young man, who took her away out on the Basin Hill, overlooking the Tenth and Twelfth wards. There, it seems, the young man outraged her and three or four other fellows who were present repeated the offense. Lieutenant H. B. McCurry found the girl and conveyed her to the Mayor's office. Shortly after being brought in she went into convulsions, and Dr. Rodgers was called in to attend her. After restoring her to conciousness, and prescribing something to strengthen her, the unfortunate woman was removed to the Homoepathic Hospital on Second street. This is really a sad case.

THE Hon. JOHN SHERMAN will speak in Pittsburgh next Monday evening, and in Blairsville Tuesday afternoon. The discussions by Senator SHERMAN of the issues before the people are always able, and we hope these meetings will be numerous, especially that at Blairsville. Let all the country turn out.

THE Post has crammed up a bogus conversion to SEYMOUR and BLAIR, thus: [illegible]

The importance to be attached to the above is determined by the fact that if ever Gen. [illegible] voted with the Republicans he has not done so for several years. But it is the best the Post can do.

THE Pittsburgh Post informs us, as a matter of history, that the Continental money—the original greenback species—"got lower and lower, until fifty dollars, and in some places more, was only equal to one dollar in coin, and finally, in 1781, it ceased to circulate altogether and became a permanent debt of the Government." Such is the history of the original greenback issue, known as Continental money, the only trouble about which was, there was too much of it. Inflation leads to repudiation—the precise line of the PENDLETON theory. The loss fell on the non-capitalists, men of small means, who could least afford it. Had the issue been less, the result would have been different. Taking warning of the past, let us stop short of the ruination point.

[illegible]

This is wholly gratuitous. We have never attacked Mr. WILLIAMS, whose abilities and services we hold in high estimation. Let our contemporary specify what he means by "persistent attacks" on this gentleman. [illegible]

WILL THEY ANSWER?

[illegible]

LET US GET RID OF IT.

A clause in an "Act for the Regulation of Railways," [illegible] into disrepute. If we desire to get rid of the public pest, we must devise ways and means to abolish the American Prize Ring.

WHO MADE THE PLATFORM?

Not SEYMOUR alone, although according to his own showing, he "obtained all he asked in the Convention." He had fifteen [illegible] to help him in the work of securing "all they fought for." They were [illegible] rebel Generals who made the platform, not to mention eight or nine rebel Colonels, and a sprinkling of Majors and Captains. [illegible]

These are the men who made the Democratic platform. [illegible]

A GENTLE ADVISER.

Prominent among the advisers of the Democratic Democracy, we observe the name of General BEAUREGARD, whose name was a tower of strength to the rebels in the beginning of the war. That was when Gen. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN dazzled the country with his grand reviews, and before hard-hitting BURNSIDE, HOOKER or MEADE came upon the scene. [illegible]

PERSONAL.

—William Endicott, Jr., an eminent dry goods merchant of Boston, has received the degree of A. M. from Williams College. The degree was, doubtless, conferred as a compliment to Mr. Endicott's abilities as an economist and financier, and as a well deserved tribute to one who has sturdily opposed the theories and plans of the repudiators.

—Madame Anna Bishop is truly a remarkable woman and artist. When last heard from she was in Australia, winning golden opinions—and pay, too, it is hoped, giving concerts. We are pleased to hear from a local critic that "her voice is full, powerful and deliciously sweet, and her action, vigor and archness display the versatility of her powers." Like wine, she should improve with age.

—The widow of Stonewall Jackson has presented to Mr. David Macrae, of Glasgow, the coat worn by that soldier when he fell on the battlefield of Chancellorsville. It was preserved and sent by General Lee to the widow, bearing the marks of the fatal bullet. The sad relic is accompanied by a beautiful and touching letter, in which Mrs. Jackson, referring to the country from which Mr. Macrae had come to see the South and its people, speaks of it as "the dear old land beyond the sea, I admire and love the most—good, honest hearted, Presbyterian Scotland."

"Good, honest hearted, Presbyterian Scotland" made a nice thing in building blockade runners and assisting the rebels in many other ways, and no doubt is deserving of the love of Mrs. Stonewall.

—Miss Menken's volume of poems, says the Round Table, must receive posthumous publication, unless her death prevents their appearance at all. Their announcement, which appeared before her death, but has just reached us, after stating that the title is Infelicia, and that they would be issued simultaneously in London, Paris, and New York, says: "The poems are somewhat of a religious cast, and will most probably surprise readers who have made up their minds for compositions of quite another character. The book itself, dedicated to Charles Dickens, is one of the daintiest little volumes which have issued from the press for many years, and the quaint illustrations at the commencement of each poem will excite no small attention."

—Thomas Hood died composing, and that, too, a humorous poem. He is said to have remarked that he was dying out of charity to the undertaker, who wished to "urn a lively Hood!"

—Ebenezer, the brother of Washington Irving, has just died at a very advanced age. The author, in a letter, spoke of him as follows: "It is now nearly a month since brother Ebenezer has been at the Cottage. I never have known him to be so long absent before, unless when on a journey. I think him one of the most perfect exemplifications of the Christian character that I have ever known. He has all father's devotion and zeal, without his strictness. Indeed, his piety is of the most genial and cheerful kind, interfering with no rational pleasure or elegant taste, and obtruding itself upon no one's habits, opinions, or pursuits. I wish to God I could feel like him. I envy him that indwelling source of consolation and enjoyment which appears to have happier effect than all the maxims of philosophy or the lessons of worldly wisdom."

GET A GOOD SAW.

And Your Mill will do Good Work.
Our Saws are Oil Tempered, Patent Ground, made to Run well.
You will find each Saw of one Temper, no Hard and Soft Spots in the same Saw.
We accomplish this by our Patent Tempering Process, and you can not get this from any other Saw Maker, as we own the Patents for the United States.
We do not claim to make a cheaper Saw than any one else, but one that will run at the word go, and will give no trouble, and will keep round longer; because being uniform with Temper, it will not wear on one side faster than the other.
We invite correspondence, or an interview with the practical man of your firm.

Similia Similibus Curantur.

SPECIFIC No. EIGHT CURES
NEURALGIA, FACEACHE, TOOTHACHE, NERVOUS PAINS.

These painful affections are the bane of life to thousands. The suffering is oftimes excruciating; sharp, darting, boring, rending or shooting pains, driving like lightning through the teeth, face, temple, forehead, or other part, form the extreme of nervous suffering. The Specific No. Eight cures like magic. Often the worst cases of long standing Toothache are cured at once, and the worst cases of Neuralgia yield to its influence. Toothache is often but a mere form of Neuralgia, and may be cured by this Specific, and the tooth thus saved. No person suffering from Neuralgia, Toothache, Faceache, or Nervous Pains, should hesitate in getting and using this Specific.

SPECIFIC No. NINE CURES
HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, RUSH OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Headache is to some persons a most constant companion, depriving them for days of rest, peace, or the power of labor. Often one day of every week or more is lost by reason of attacks of headache. Often children and young people are almost constant sufferers from it. All this is unnecessary. The Specific No. Nine, either alone or in connection with No. Ten, or No. One, is sovereign in all such cases, and may be depended upon for a cure.

These Remedies, by the case or single box, are sent to any part of the country, by Mail or Express, free of charge, on receipt of price. Address HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC

Homeopathic Medicine Company,

Office and Depot, No. 562 Broadway, New York.

The Celebrated Walter Grape.

After twenty-five years experience with the present tender and late varieties we know the Walter, now first offered, will restore confidence in Grape raising. It never rots. Its abundant sugar ripens it in-doors or on the vine; it is a great grower and bearer, and now contains 146 clusters of bloom; is very compact in cluster at the East, which is in advantage in marketing. We have not known the foliage to mildew. It succeeds in dry and very wet soil. Is a seedling of the Delaware, crossed with the Diana, and better than either. Ripens before the Hartford, therefore, the earliest, hardiest and best variety. No. 1, one year, $5 each, in advance. Orders filled in rotation, while supply lasts. No charge for packing. Send stamp for beautiful cut and opinions of many vineyards.

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

A CERTAIN AND RELIABLE REMEDY FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs.

Any derangement or obstruction of these Organs is quickly followed by acute suffering, which, if not corrected immediately, will be followed by the most disastrous consequences. Nature herself will not rally from any prostration of these organs, but must be assisted by the use of a Diuretic; as such,

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

Stand pre-eminent, having proved themselves superior to any medicine yet discovered for affections of the Kidneys, &c.

Read the following testimony in their favor:

GEO. A. KELLY—Dear Sir: I was so badly afflicted with pain in the kidneys that I could hardly turn myself in bed, and breathing also caused me severe pain. I had given up hopes of ever getting well again, when I bought a box of Dr. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS, which at once relieved me, and I believe they have been the means of the cure. I have also recommended them to others where like complaints were made, and they have in every case proved efficacious. I cheerfully recommend them to any one suffering from this trouble, as I believe they are the best medicine for this class of diseases I have ever heard of. Any further information can be obtained by seeing me at Outer Depot, Pennsylvania Railroad, or at my residence, No. 55 Arthurs street.
